Faculty Governance at the UW Campuses

Executive Orders V, IX, and 12

UW Governance Structure

EO No. V: Faculty Authority Concerning Appointment, Promotion, and Tenure

.....If the Regents create colleges or schools within the campuses of the University of Washington, Bothell, or the University of Washington, Tacoma, headed by a dean, then for those UWB or UWT colleges and schools the words colleges and schools and dean in the Faculty Code and Governance shall have the same meaning as they do at the University of Washington, Seattle.

May 31, 1956; October 1, 1982; January 30, 2004.

Historical Transition

Programs □ Schools

1989

- Branch campuses were formed at Bothell and Tacoma.
- Academic Programs were launched.
- Chancellor was appointed as the executive head reporting to the Executive Office in Seattle.
- Each Program was headed by a Program Director.

2013

- Through EO IX, 5 schools were formed on the Bothell campus.
- Directors were given Dean title.
- Newly formed schools were asked to establish faculty governance.
- Bylaws and governance documents were created and implemented.

2019

- Majority of schools had functioning faculty councils
- Schools had accreditations led by their respective deans
- Shared governance was thriving at this stage.
- Decentralization of Promotion and Tenure in accordance with EO , IX, and FCG Section 23-45 (Sub C) was being discussed at the tri-campus level.
