

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITY

Train to be a volunteer tax preparer under this federal program:

Become a VITA volunteer! Every year the University of Washington Tacoma, Milgard School of Business hosts VITA training and tax preparation services. Students train to learn valuable skills, then provide FREE professional IRS tax preparation services to lower income individuals. This program often finds significant savings for our local South Sound taxpayers!

- Build your confidence as a tax preparer through experiential learning
- Provide a charitable service to your community
- Build skills in accounting, finance, administration and leadership to add to your resume
- Helps to inject money back into the community through refunds
- Support the university's service mission
- Volunteer for one or more days
- Training will be provided
